Interested in joining? The Oxford Guild of Assassins is a lovely bunch of people who like to launch daring midnight raids, carry attack animals, write operatic kill reports and generally have a lot of fun! If a week of getting to know people because they're standing outside your door with an attack otter sounds interesting (or you fancy trying some of our epic socials), complete the disclaimer and pidge the £2 fee to Erin English (Wadham), for lifetime membership.

For more information contact the Guild Master, Jack Harrison (Univ) at jack.harrison@univ.ox.ac.uk
